MCTC
2010

A vibrant collage featuring three women in various poses. At the top, a woman lies horizontally against a fiery, orange and yellow background. On the right, a woman in a red dress is positioned behind a Star Wars X-wing fighter. At the bottom left, a woman in a light blue dress stands with her hand near her face, with a view of Earth in the background. In the bottom right, a classic black car with license plate 'JJZ 109' is shown amidst flames. The background is a mix of space, fire, and clouds.

He was there when i broke down and was there as a bestfriend and i admire him for pushing me forward and helping me forget the pain. My family has 679

In my High School years i have learned from many struggles from being independent and learning how life is and how it would be. Nobody knows my cause i've been in a hole for these four years but all they know is that i'm chavely and a typical spanish girl.

I have had many friendships in my life. Some relationships that ended up with me gettin hurt. Many people change during high school and i know i have changed but i havent changed my dreams and how successful i want to be in life. Ive been prepared for the future and i thank all the teachers and friends i've had to help me push myself, =D.

year. in review

PRESTIGIOUS AWARD ►

President Barack Obama won the 2009 Nobel Peace Prize. The Norwegian Nobel Committee said it honored Obama because of his work to build ties between nations and people. The announcement was a surprise, even to White House officials.

ARMY BASE MASSACRE ►

An army psychiatrist at Fort Hood, Texas, allegedly opened fire on base, killing 13 people and wounding 30 before being wounded. Investigators were trying to determine whether Major Nidal Malik Hasan, an American, had terrorist ties.

ABLE AND UNEMPLOYED ▲

There were signs the nation was climbing out of the recession, but job hunters could not tell. U.S. unemployment reached 10.2%, the highest since 1983.

YANKEES BACK ON TOP ►

The New York Yankees defeated the Philadelphia Phillies in six games to win the 2009 World Series, and claim their record 27th championship. Outfielder Hideki Matsui hit .615 in the series and became the first Japanese player to win World Series MVP.

SPREADING GLEE ◀

Glee, Fox's new comedy about the show choir group at an Ohio high school, became a critical success and was nominated for numerous awards. The show's musical format gained a loyal audience, led to frequent song downloads from the show's musical numbers and even to new glee clubs at some high schools.

BOLT INTO THE RECORD BOOK ▼

Already the fastest man in the world, Jamaican sprinter Usain Bolt won the 100 and 200 meters at the 2009 World Track Championships in Berlin, shattering the world records he already held. Bolt's time of 9.58 seconds in the 100 was more than a tenth of a second faster than the previous record he set in the 2008 Olympics.

BALLOON BOY HOAX ▲

The parents who claimed their 6-year-old son was carried away by a flying saucer-shaped balloon served some jail time. The plot by Richard and Mayumi Heene was revealed by their son, Falcon, during an interview when he said the family "did this for the show." The Heenes, who had appeared on Wife Swap, apparently were hoping the incident would lead to another reality TV show.

SAFE LANDING ▲

Airport security was looked at again after a Nigerian man tried to blow up his Northwest Airlines flight just before landing in Detroit on Christmas Day. Umar Farouk Abdulmutallab, 23, was badly burned when he lit a small explosive device while sitting in his seat. He was held by passengers and crew until the plane landed.

FLU VACCINE SCARCITY ▲

While the government asked the public to take the H1N1 influenza seriously, vaccine shortages occurred because it could not be made fast enough. Then people had to decide whether to get the "regular" and the H1N1 vaccines – available in shot and nasal mist forms.

TWEETING THE NEWS ▲

Many news stories were beginning to appear on social websites like Twitter. Some events closed to traditional media outlets, such as Iran's government-controlled election, were reported to the world via Twitter users.

WAR ON TERROR ►

About 68,000 U.S. troops were stationed in Afghanistan to fight the Taliban as President Barack Obama planned to send an additional 30,000 troops. He also stated a goal of bringing troops home beginning July 2011.

ENDING ON A HIGH NOTE ▼

The story of plane crash survivors who end up on a mysterious island, Lost, finally came to an end during its sixth and last season. The cult classic, which at its peak became one of the most-watched shows on TV, once again became one of the "events" of the TV season by wrapping up all its mysteries.

350 MILLION AND COUNTING ▲

Social networking website Facebook kept growing, reaching 350 million subscribers – more than the population of the United States. A movie was even made about the life of Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg, who created the website in his Harvard dorm room.

DISASTER BEYOND BELIEF ►

A powerful earthquake, measuring 7.0 on the Richter scale, hit just outside Port-au-Prince, the capital city of island nation Haiti. More than 217,000 people were killed, nearly 400,000 lost their homes and were left scrambling for aid and several of the country's historic landmarks were destroyed.

EVERYONE GOES WIRELESS ◀

Most people were now carrying wireless phones. And the gadgets could do more things, as products like Apple's iPhone allowed users to place calls, take pictures, access email and the internet, keep schedules and much more.

HEALTH CARE DEBATE ▼

Americans loudly voiced their opinions about health care reform. During Congress' August recess, people shouted down their congressmen at town hall meetings. Cost was a hot button, with reform bills in Congress ranging from $848 billion to $1.052 trillion.

AWKWARD MOMENT ▼

When country star Taylor Swift won Best Female Video at the MTV Video Music Awards, rapper Kanye West grabbed the microphone and protested that Beyonce should have won the award. West's upstaging of Swift was met with boos. When Beyonce won Video of the Year later in the show, she called Swift back on stage for the two ladies to share a moment.

HARRY POTTER STILL STRONG ▲

The Harry Potter series continued stronger than ever through the movies. The film based on the sixth book, Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince, made nearly $1 billion worldwide. Plans were made to split the story of the seventh and final book into two movies.

TOUGH YEAR FOR TIGER ◀

The golf world could never slow down Tiger Woods, but the planet's most famous athlete saw his career come to a halt after he was involved in a car accident outside his home the day after Thanksgiving. When media looking into the story discovered that Woods had been unfaithful to his wife for years, the golfer took an indefinite leave from the sport to regroup and refocus his life.

SAINTS MARCH TO VICTORY ►

The New Orleans Saints defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, to win Super Bowl XLIV. It was the first championship in team history. Quarterback Drew Brees was named MVP after he tied the record for most pass completions in the game with 32. The win came just four years after much of New Orleans was under water from Hurricane Katrina.

PATRIARCH PASSES ▼

Massachusetts Sen. Ted Kennedy, 77, died from a cancerous brain tumor. The youngest brother of President John Kennedy and Sen. Robert Kennedy made a name for himself as the "Lion of the Senate," helping to pass laws such as the Civil Rights Act, Americans with Disabilities Act and the Family and Medical Leave Act.

MISSED THE EXIT ►

Two Northwest Airlines pilots lost their licenses after flying past their stop at the Minneapolis airport. At first, it was feared the plane was hijacked, as air traffic control could not make radio contact. But Captain Timothy Cheney and First Officer Richard Cole lost track of time and where they were because they were using laptops and talking about work schedules.

GOOD-BYE TO THE KING OF POP ◀

Michael Jackson, considered one of the most influential and famous entertainers, collapsed in his home and later died from an overdose of prescription medicine. Jackson's death led to much reflection and debate about his eccentric life.

COUNTING HEADS ◀

Counting of the U.S. population began in March 2010 when census forms were mailed. From April through July, census takers followed up on unreturned forms and searched for uncounted people. There was a push to ensure that African-Americans were counted correctly. The census determines congressional districts and where to spend federal funds.

A WHOLE NEW, 3-D WORLD ▲

Futuristic, sci-fi thriller Avatar easily became the biggest box office hit of the year, and one of the biggest hits of all-time, mostly due to what audiences considered breathtaking visuals. Using new, advanced 3-D technology, the movie was in production for several years and cost more than $250 million to make.

THE BEST EVER? ▲

Roger Federer won the 15th Grand Slam singles title of his career, the most of any men's tennis player in history, when he defeated Andy Roddick in a five-set classic at Wimbledon. He then added to his record in the new year when he won the Australian Open for the fourth time.

ROLL TIDE! ◀

Alabama won college football's BCS national championship game, 37-21, over Texas. The Crimson Tide were led by 116 yards rushing from Heisman Trophy winning running back Mark Ingram. The game turned early when Texas quarterback Colt McCoy was knocked out of the game with a pinched nerve in his throwing shoulder.

A NEW MOON AT THE MOVIES ◀

Many theaters sold out two months in advance when New Moon, the second movie in the Twilight series, made it to the big screen. The romantic tale of Bella Swan and her vampire boyfriend Edward Cullen was a huge hit with the teen audience.

FIERCE SUCCESS FOR BEYONCE ▼

Beyonce Knowles won six Grammy awards for her album I Am... Sasha Fierce. The song "Single Ladies (Put a Ring on It)" became a number one hit, and the music video was one of the more memorable, parodied images of the year.

FUNDING BACK FOR STEM CELL RESEARCH ▲

As one of his first prominent acts, President Obama lifted President Bush's ban on the use of federal funds for medical stem cell research. Laws on the books still prevent scientists from creating new embryonic stem cells for research, but the renewed funding allowed them to once again study hundreds of stem cell lines already in existence.

TROUBLING CONFESSION ▲

Eight years after his retirement, former home run king Mark McGwire became the latest baseball superstar to admit to steroid use during his playing days. Long suspected, McGwire finally admitted to using the banned substances in the 1990s after he accepted a job as the hitting coach of the St. Louis Cardinals.

O CANADA ▶

The 2010 Winter Olympics were held in Canada for the third time, this time in Vancouver. Unfortunately, the Games were rocked by a tragic start when Nodar Kumaritashvili, a luge competitor from Georgia, was killed during a training crash. On a more upbeat note, speed skater Apolo Anton Ohno became the most decorated American male winter Olympian when he won his sixth medal.
